

ABSTRACT

A call admission policy is provided that has a dynamic operating point setting desired load levels for data calls and for voice calls. A request for a first call admission may be granted even though the desired load levels are exceeded if there is sufficient power to admit at least one 5 additional second call, wherein the first call is selected from the group of data or voice calls and the second call is the remaining type of call within the group.

Docket No. 254/133